

THE BEST SERVICE YET

In the Congregational Revival Held Last Night—Evangelist Layfield Doing Good Work.

The best service of the series was conducted by Evangelist Layfield at the Congregational church last night, though the attendance was not what it should have been. The capability of the evangelist ought to give him a full hearing by the people of Palestine.

"The thing to see, the thing to know, and the thing to determine," was the big subject handled so helpfully to all present from the first book of Corinthians. The thing to see, Mr. Layfield said, is your calling. He gave a number of bible illustrations showing how God has chosen men who have chosen Christ, and how God rejects all men who reject or neglect Christ. The thing to know is that God makes use of many foolish things and many weak things to carry out His purpose in grace. There was a number of touching illustrations from the bible characters and from life that brought encouragement to the hearts of those who feel that they are weak instruments that God has consented to use in His service. The thing to determine is to know nothing but Christ crucified. The evangelist paid his respects to those who reject the blood of Christ and its efficacy in the finished redemption and present salvation provided for all who receive Jesus Christ as the gift of God and eternal life through faith in Him as a personal Savior. The friends present were urged to bring the unsaved people to the meetings, which will continue at 3 and 7:30 p. m. every day this week, except Saturday, rain or shine. All are invited.

U. D. C. Meeting.

The John H. Reagan Chapter No. 363, U. D. C., met in regular session Friday, December 31, 1909, at 3 p. m., in the council chamber of the city hall. Present and presiding, Mrs. W. W. Wainright, third vice president. A quorum was present.

In the absence of the recording secretary, Miss Garnett Ozment was appointing recording secretary pro tem. On motion made, duly seconded and unanimously carried, it was decided that the John H. Reagan Chapter would jointly give with the Benedette Tobin Chapter a reception to Mrs. A. R. Howard, president of the Texas Division, U. D. C., and Miss Coral Ozment, corresponding secretary of the Texas Division, at the city hall, Thursday, January 6, 1910.

On account of the anniversary of General Lee and General Jackson being on the 19th of January, the third vice president, Mrs. Wainright, appointed a committee to see Mrs. Johnson, first vice president and acting president, consisting of Miss Garnett Ozment, chairman, Mesdames J. B. Allen, R. J. Holtzheuser and E. J. Roussell, about observing the day. The third vice president, Mrs. Wainright, instructed the corresponding secretary to send a note of thanks to Mrs. Collat for a donation of $1.00, being made to the Reagan monument at the November meeting.

On motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried, the recording secretary was requested to bring a copy of the constitution and by-laws at the next meeting in January, for the purpose of the chapter taking into consideration whether we have a complete list of officials for the ensuing year.

No further business before the chapter, we adjourned to meet Friday, Jan. 28, 1910, in the council chamber of the city hall.

Mrs. Mattie Wainright, Third Vice President.

Attest: Garnett Ozment, Rec. Secretary Pro Tem.

Spanish Vaudeville Team.

The management says: The popular little Lyric Theatre was crowded to the doors again last night with a large and appreciative audience, the majority of whom came especially to see the Spanish vaudeville team of Ampara and Yoakim, who opened their engagement in our city last night. These vaudeville artists have only recently arrived in America from Madrid, Spain, and have created quite a big sensation wherever they have made an appearance. The Spanish singing and dancing of the female member of the team made a fine impression with Lyric patrons and she was compelled to respond to numerous encores. The costumes they wear are very beautiful and attractive and their act is entirely different from anything seen here before; in fact, it is not often that Palestine theatre-goers have the opportunity of witnessing such an excellent performance at popular prices.

Ampara and Yoakim will appear at the New Lyric again tonight and tomorrow night, also at the Wednesday matinee, and no doubt this little show shop will do its usual capacity business during their stay in our city. Tonight they will make an entire change of songs, dances and costumes.

GLOBE MAKES CHANGE

Mr. Herman Cohen, With Mr. L. N. Steilein of St. Louis, Takes Over the Stock.

Today Mr. H. Cohen, associated with Mr. L. N. Steilein of St. Louis, took over Mr. H. Bloch's interest in the Globe Dry Goods company. Mr. Cohen was a partner in this company. Mr. Bloch retires, and the St. Louis man becomes a partner in the business. The name of the business will remain the same—The Globe.

Mr. H. Cohen will continue as the local manager, and he is a good one, too, with progressive ideas. He informs a Herald man that the building is to be improved, an elevator established, and that the store will occupy the whole of the second floor; that many new lines will be added, including all kinds of ladies' ready-to-wear, children's clothing, etc. The store will be made an extensive one, and up-to-date in every essential, and second to no Palestine store. He says the change makes it possible to do these things, and do them right.

This store during its comparatively short life in Palestine has built up a wonderful business. Mr. Cohen is a man of progressive ideas, dynamic energy, and therefore a hustler. He says he expects with the enlarged store to be an aggressive advertiser, and Herald readers will therefore be enabled to keep posted as to this new store.

INGLORIOUSLY DRUNK

Two Young Women Make Spectacular Drive Through Business District and Get Arrested.

Late yesterday afternoon a mounted policeman, after a chase, overtook two young women who had just made a spectacular drive through the city in a hired livery rig. They ran into a baggage wagon, ran down a negro on a bicycle, and seemed to be enjoying the sport, when policemen decided their conduct needed looking into.

They were overtaken, and it was discovered both were drunk. A charge of drunk was lodged against them, they entered pleas of guilty, paid their fines, and vanished.

The women gave their names as Alma Myers and Annie Wilson, and said they belonged in Houston.

TO THE MEMORY OF MISS MOL- LIE C. BROYLES.

To Aunt Mollie: She has gone to her reward, The book of life is closed; She heard the trumpet call of forward And straightway started for the goal.

For nearly four score years she labored

In the vineyard of the King,

By good deeds her days were num- bered—

Happiness to all she'd bring.

Ever loving, ever gentle,

Like a dove of peace she'd come;

Tears of sympathy to mingle

With those where hope and love were done,

Where God had laid a gentle finger

Upon a loved one, called them home,

Like a saint you'd always find her

Bringing peace to those alone.

In our hearts there is a corner

Ever more shall vacant be,

A memory sweet for aye shall hover,

We thank thee, Lord for such as she.

In her crown of many jewels

Mirrored by a face Divine

May a gleam of light be sent us

Far across the stream of time.

May we all her footsteps follow

In that narrow, rugged path,

Leading ever onward, upward,

Reach the pearly gates unscathed.

By the world of sin and sorrow

Safely led by angel hands

Be numbered with His blessed chil- dren

When outward runs this life's sands.

Her Niece,

Mrs. Mary Broyles Prather.

O'NEALS CHAPEL.

O'Neals Chapel, Jan. 3.—Another year has gone with its joys and sorrows, and a new one has been ushered in. Mr. Editor, you should have been with us on Christmas day. We had such a good time with our dear old mother; had a nice dinner at the home of W. S. Maddux, and what a nice time we did have! Grandma Maddux's daughter, Mrs. J. G. Butler, from Russellville, Ark., was there, and how proud we were to meet that dear sister. We had not met her in eight years. Grandma received several nice presents. Among those who remembered her was G. W. Maddux, her son; he gave her a nice dress and other things, of which she was so proud.

Mrs. Lena Featherstone and children of Palestine have been with us all week, and such a time we did have with our loved ones. Also Mr. Walter Starkes of Palestine took dinner with us Christ day.

Aunt Martha Starr is on the sick list.

Mr. L. B. Starkes and family and Mr. W. W. Featherstone and family spent a pleasant day with W. S. Maddux and family yesterday, the second, and we had such a nice dinner. With best wishes for the dear old Herald and its editors.

Jennie Starkes.

DUKE JOHN ALBERT OF MECKLENBURG AND HIS BRIDE.

The most brilliant wedding that has taken place in Germany since the marriage of the German crown prince was that of Duke John Albert of Mecklenburg and Princess Elizabeth of Stolberg. The German emperor, the empress and all the royal family were in attendance, as were hundreds of the most notable persons in the realm. It was the second marriage of the duke, his first wife having died some years ago. He was born in 1857.

JUST PUBLISHED

Webster's NEW INTERNATIONAL Dictionary, (G. & C. Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass.) surpasses the old International as much as that book exceeded its predecessor. On the old foundation a new superstructure has been built. The reconstruction has been carried on through many years by a large force of trained workers, under the supervision of Dr. W. T. Harris, former United States Commissioner of Education, and reinforced by many eminent specialists. The definitions have been rearranged and amplified. The number of terms defined has been more than doubled. The etymology, synonyms, pronunciation, have received unsparing scholarly labor. The language of English literature for over seven centuries, the terminology of the arts and sciences, and the every-day speech of street, shop, and household, are presented with fullness and clearness. In size of vocabulary, in richness of general information, and in convenience of consultation, the book sets a new mark in lexicography.
